

Ms Yang is a partner of Haiwen & Partners based in Beijing, and an expert in dealing with complex compliance issues involving domestic and cross-jurisdictional matters, especially in data compliance and anti-corruption compliance.

Ms Yang joined Haiwen in 2020 as a partner. Before joining Haiwen, Ms Yang worked at King&Wood Mallesons, Beijing Representative Office of DLA Piper and Fangda Partners since 2008.

In the area of data compliance, Ms Yang has assisted different types of clients to establish in anticorruption compliance due diligence on behalf of investors for the target companies with a cumu

potential dat

Represented a leading domestic private equity fund in its investment in a well-known ESG company to conduct data compliance due diligence, involving important data, sensitive social issues, negative information of special industries etc.

Represented an Internet giant in its inU interaction, and advised on the selection of partners based on the assessment

Assisted a listed biotechnology company to evaluate the legality of its business models and aVction

Advised a leading joint venture financial group on various data compliance issues, involving the cross-border transfer of financial data, the technical architecture and security operation and maintenance of data centre, the sharing and isolation of information systems among financial subsidiaries.

investigation measures to track the capital flow and conduct background check for the investor to make informed investment decision.

Represented a U.S. listed investor in its investment in the real estate industry to conduct anti-corruption compliance due diligence, involving the analysis and advice on the —

Assisted an internati

